UGPO9_N - Number receiving Post-9/11 GI Bill Benefits - undergraduate students

Military Servicemembers and Veteran's Benefits - Number of undergraduate students receiving Post-9/11 GI Bill Benefits Student recipients can also include eligible spouse or dependents. For Post-9/11 GI Bill Benefits, matching institutional aid provided through the Yellow Ribbon Program is not included. Information reported is only what is known to the institution. Benefits that were not awarded/certified through the institution are not included. Post 9/11 GI Bill is a federal education benefit program for veterans, who served on active duty after September 10, 2001. This Department of Veteran Affairs benefit provides up to 36 months of education benefits at an approved institution for the following college costs: tuition and fees, books and supplies and housing. The tuition and fees payment, which is the cost for an in-state student attending a public institution, is made directly to the postsecondary institution whereas payments for books and supplies and housing are sent directly to the student. Yellow Ribbon Program is a voluntary program through which participating public and private institutions can provide veterans and eligible beneficiaries additional institutional aid to cover the costs of tuition and fees at their institutions. The Yellow Ribbon Program is a supplementary program to the Post 9/11 GI Bill coverage of in-state tuition and fees. The Department of Veterans Affairs matches the institutional aid provided beyond the in-state tuition and fees, but to certain limit each year.
